When life throws you oysters, harvest the pearls!

PearlTivator™, Ajshay James, will motivate you to harvest and cultivate your pearls of financial savvy- she believes that “plastic spoon or platinum spoon, we ALL have the capacity to be financially savvy.” Ajshay takes on the stodgy subject of finance and delivers palatable pearls of wisdom with sass and savvy. Ajshay is not afraid to “go there” sharing personal accounts of money matters experienced in her life, pitfalls, triumphs and everything in between. These aren’t your mom’s pearls but they are just the perfect strand for you to live a money maven lifestyle. Ajshay is a real person who speaks in a way that helps even the most financially illiterate person make sense of cents. She is no stranger to a hard time and overcoming adversity, this coupled with her mind over matter approach makes her an excellent speaker and finance guruette for the times.
